

Bengaluru were involved in this clinical case presentations. The entire CSEP- specialist lectures, clinical presentation and discussion, interactive sessions of various specialties, the venue, food and hospitality were rated as good/excellent by the delegates.

2. Dr.R.H.N. Shenoy Memorial Workshop was conducted on 08-12-2019. about 110 PG's participated. they received hands on training for laparoscopic knotting and suturing, vascular and G.I. anastomosis.

3. A one day CME on ASPIC(Approach to Surgical Patients needing Intensive Care) was organised at Aster CMI Hospital on 8.12.19. 68 young surgeons and post graduates attended the course. There were didactic lectures by experts and hands on work shop. The course was highly appreciated by the delegates.

Dr. H V Shivaram, National EC member & Website Secretary of ASI inaugurated the course. Dr Rajiv Lochan(Liver Transplant Surgeon) & Dr. Prakash Doreswamy(ICU Specialist) were the brain behind this academic endeavour.

